

Larry Hurst, MPA

Larry received his undergraduate degree from the University of Nevada, Reno in Health Sciences and a Masters Degree in Public Administration at Drake University. His experience includes medical practice management, corporate compliance, legislative/regulatory oversight, managed care operations, health policy analysis and lobbying.

Larry is Director, Nevada Government Relations for Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield. He is past-president for the Nevada Association of Health Underwriters, National Regulatory Chair for the National Association of Health Underwriters, Nevadans For Affordable Health Care board member, Nevada Association of Health Plans board member and Past-President for Southern Nevada Executive Healthcare Forum. He is a professor of health policy at the University of Nevada Las Vegas and received the United Way's Outstanding Community Leadership and Support award.