

RICHARD L. GUNDLING, FHFMA, CMA,
Vice President
Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA)

Rick is responsible for the technical and content direction for HFMA, leadership of its Washington DC office activities, and the development of products and services. He also serves as staff liaison to the Principles and Practices Board of the HFMA. Rick has written an extensive number of published articles on broad topics within healthcare finance and the healthcare industry. HFMA is a professional association with over 35,000 members engaged in the financial management of the healthcare sector.